WEDDING DRESS WENT TO MANILA

Ensign Butler's Sister's Gown Sent to Him Instead of to the Bride, in Paterson.

An interesting story is attached to the wedding dress which was not worn by the bride at the recent marriage of Bancroft Gherardi, son of the Rear Admiral, to Miss Mary Butler, at the latter's home in Pater son, N. J. Its absence might have delayed the ceremony but for a well-stocked ward-

Some time ago Henry Butler, ensign on the Olympia, of the Aslatic squadron, offered to buy goods for a wedding dress for his sister, in China. It was faithfully awaited and expected, but failed to arrive

BLOODHOUND BIT A BOY BICYCLIST.

Flesh from His Leg. Albert Conlan, the thirteen-year-old son of John P. Conlan, a Bloomfield, N. J., cigar manufacturer, was attacked and severely bitten by a xicious bloodhound belonging to George Berry while riding his bleycle yesterday.

The dog sprang upon the lad, knocked him off the wheel and tore a piece of flesh from his leg. Mr. Berry drove the animal away. Dr. E. M. Ward cauterized the wound.

WOMEN IN THE WAR.

HE number of Red Cross Auxiliaries have been increased to forty-eight. They are all over the country, many of them in the farming districts, from which delicacles and fruit syrups are sent in quantities to the Red Cross Supply Depot. Chappaqua, Peekskill, South Salem, Pleasantville, Bedford Station, Golden's Bridge, Purdy's, Mount Kisco and Katonah, all have their Red Cross associations.

Peekskill reports splendld progress. Eighty-two cases of groceries have been received from the Land and Sea Anxillary. 10:30 A.M. and 2:30 P.M. each day. Westchester.

From the Pittsburg Auxiliary come the largest quantities of supplies sent by any organization outside of this State. Its members have also offered to fill any special of the week. Want a bicycle? requisition. They are especially interested in the sending of ice, and have collected $1,000 for that purpose.

THE Committee on Supplies for the Red Cross Relief Association met yesterday for $10 a month, and the Rodman morning and listened to accounts of work and money rendered by the various for $20 outright. There are no better auxiliaries.

For the Ambulance Equipment Society, Mrs. Cowles reported that six ambulances wheels at their prices in the whole awaited and expected, but falled to arrive.

A few days ago came the explanation. The merchant from whom the purchase was made, instead of sending the dress to Paterson, forwarded it to Ensign Butler, who was unable to send it to its destination unsupported by the design and that five are held in reserve awaiting orders. Following a state-world, and that's a strong state-ment that it was willing to depart from its original project, the equipment of amounts, instead of sending the dress to Paterson, forwarded it to Ensign Butler, who was unable to send it to its destination unsupport of the ambulances and that five are held in reserve awaiting orders. Following a state-ment that it was willing to depart from its original project, the equipment of amounts, but true.

In representing the Ethical Culture Society, Mrs. Olleshelmer, explained that not was unable to send it to its destination unsupport of the purchase of forty and the state of the purchase of forty and the state of the purchase of the purchase of forty and the state of the purchase of the purch

Plans for a fete champetre were presente by Mrs. Henry Marquand for the North Westchester County Auxiliary. It will take place on July 23, at th home of Mr. Clarence Whitman, in Katonah. Mrs. Marquand reperted the formation of eleven subcommittees to her own auxiliary. At their meeting yesterday 150 members were Knocked Him from His Wheel and Tore present, and $150 was subscribed for the maintenance of trained nurses at the front. To the Ethical Culture Auxiliary belongs the honor of supplying for the men at the front the best sort of abdominal bandages that have been received as yet. They have been approved by Surgeon-General Sternberg.

In addition to $2,300, Miss Schenck has received 2,000 letters from persons, abusing what they call her imposture.

ORE than a score of young women who live in the neighborhood of Willoughby and Sumner avenues, Brooklyn, have been holding a fair for several days, on a spacious lawn at No. 702 Willoughby avenue. The fair closed last night, and the proceeds will go toward the purchase of good things for the soldiers and sailors.

The young women who made it such a success are Helen Arents, Linda Hedeman, Etta Hedeman, Mabel Howell, Blanche Kendrick, Lillian Lehritter and Jessie Senior.

THE Central Cuban Relief Committee has purchased three hundred tons of supplies for immediate shipment to Key West. The forty mules which have been purchased will be shipped at once to Santiago. The expense for their purchase and transportation, amounting to $7,500, has been met by the First New York An bulance Equipment Auxiliary.

T the meeting of the American National Red Cross Relief Committee, Treasurer A Gailntin reported having received up to date the sum of $98,444.43, of which $17,847.19 is on band. Chairman Wardwell is negotiating with the Philadelphia Red Cross Society in the hope of securing its financial aid for the weekly expenses of the ship Red Cross.

IN SOUND SLEEP.

Thirty-Foot Tumble Didn't Wake Up This Mount Vernon Small Boy.

Percy Boedecker is the smallest somnambulist in Westchester County, and he enjoys the distinction of walking out of a second-story window without injuring him-

The sleep walker is the seven-year-old son of W. H. Boedecker, of No. 326 South Second avenue, Mount Vernon. Lust night he Boedecker spied a white object on the grass, thirty feet below. She hastened downstairs, expecting to find her son dead. On the contrary, he was sound asleep, and appeared to be none the worse for his novel experience. When she saw that her boy was alive the mother gave a scream of ice and fainted.
